

CASKET PRICE LIST Effective March 1, 2026

Price, Casket, & Availability Subject to Change without Notice

This casket price list shows a small selection of caskets that are available to the families we serve. We use all three major casket manufacturers that serve Central Virginia. Between them, we have access to over a thousand caskets. We use this list to show a good cross section of what is available. Through our virtual showroom, our staff will show you as many as you want to see in order to find the one that best fits your taste and price range.

Unlike other funeral homes, we do not double, triple or quadruple the wholesale cost of the caskets that we sell. We simply add a small fee to cover our handling, cleaning and presentation of the casket selected.

Not all caskets can accommodate every size person. We offer a selection of oversized caskets and alternative containers. Oversize caskets do have some restrictions concerning placement in mausoleums and pre-installed lawn crypts at our area cemeteries. Please consult with your funeral director if this will be a factor with the services that you are selecting. PLEASE REMEMBER when using some oversize caskets, you will also have to purchase an oversize outer burial container. Please discuss this matter with your funeral director.

All caskets are shown with the interior style and color that was chosen by the manufacturer. Just about every casket can be custom outfitted with any color or style interior in the manufacturer's inventory.

The fee to change the interior is $500 and will take approx. 5 business days to complete and deliver to our funeral home. If you want to choose this option, please discuss this with your funeral director prior to scheduling any services.

Most of our caskets can be customized with a themed head-panel that you can select at the time of making arrangements. If a head panel is not included in the price of the casket or you want a personalized head-panel, there is a fee of $125 and can possibly take 5 business days for delivery to our funeral home. Please discuss this with your funeral director.
